AMARILLO TASCOSA REBELS

COMMUNITY CONNECTORS

The Amarillo Tascosa Rebels Embrace Their Hometown Like None Other

Q & A WITH Cody & Jamie Graham

Q. How did you get involved at Tascosa High School?

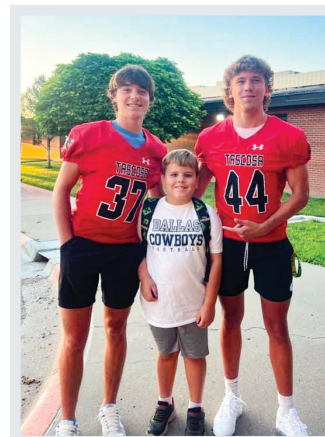

"Cody is an alumnus, and our three children attend or have graduated from Tascosa. As stakeholders of the Tascosa HS community, we feel it is important to get involved and to make every effort to utilize our knowledge, time, talents, and/or treasures to make a positive impact any way we can. We have loved supporting in various ways from being involved with the Rebel Foundation, Excellence Council, various booster clubs, student group support and Spirit development."

Q. What makes the Tascosa Community Special?

"The uniqueness and diversity of the people that make up the Tascosa community make it so special. It is a great place to teach our young people how to work together with people from all types of backgrounds. The staff is committed to developing students, athletes, and future leaders."

Q. What is your proudest moment as a member of the Tascosa Community?

"We are proud to be a part of positive change and development. We have been honored to be able to contribute as fans, parents, boosters, and as Rebel enthusiasts. We are most proud to have a part in getting others involved in supporting Tascosa, its staff, and its young people."

Presented by:

CONNECTING WITH
Coach Kenneth Plunk

Q. Who is your Community Connector selection and how are they involved with the Amarillo Tascosa community?

“Cody and Jamie Graham, Cody is head of our “Rebel Foundation” (Our athletic fundraising organization) and Jamie works with our Cheerleaders.”

Q. What do you talk to your team about when you talk about representing your community, and how is your team involved with the community?

“Everything we do as a team, we want to contribute to our school and our community. Tascosa Football wants to instill pride in our community by the way we play and the way we act.”

Just as Optimum has been a source of keeping the community connected through its award-winning high-speed internet, Dave Campbell’s Texas Football has been a “bible” source for millions of football fans across the Lone Star State.

During this year’s Texas high school football season, Optimum is keeping score on local individuals who are making a difference in their community. As a result, Optimum is proud to have partnered with Dave Campbell’s Texas Football to do so.

Leveraging Dave Campbell’s insight and expertise in scouting, Optimum’s partnership with Dave Campbell’s Texas Football is nothing short of a “winning connection.” The partnership enabled the creation of the Community Connector Award in order to celebrate the achievements of community difference makers year-round – both on and off the field.

Optimum is proud to recognize

Cody & Jamie Graham

for their contributions to the community

Optimum is a proud founder of this award as it celebrates committed students, teachers and parents who stay connected in their community and honor them for their generous hard work and support to make their community a better place.

Q. Why is it important to you to teach your young men about giving back to the community?

“Our ultimate success as a football program is the type of citizen we are putting into our community. Giving back is a big part of our program we do what we can to give back as well.”

Q. What is unique about your school and community?

“Tascosa has been my home for 16 years. We have a great community that represents every aspect of Amarillo. Every year we want to make Tascosa the best school in the Panhandle. We want to build on the success of the teams that came before us.”

Q. What does staying connected to the community mean to you?

“As a football team, we want to support the other organizations on campus. We also want to get involved with organizations in our community.”

Optimum is a proud supporter of Texas High School Football.
